CIDAC
Centro de Documen
TL 3281

SELF-DETERMINATION DENIED: THE SUFFERING OF EAST TIMOR

A conference on the Indonesian invasion and occupation of East Timor; U.S. involvement; the role of the U.N.; self-determination in the post-colonial era.

Saturday
November 19, 1983
9:30 A.M. - 5:30 P.M.

Pound Hall,
Harvard Law School
1563 Mass. Ave.

Speakers

Monsignor Martinho da Costa Lopes,
Former Apostolic Administrator of Dili, East Timor
Noam Chomsky, M.I.T.
U.N. Representatives from Mozambique and Zimbabwe
Senator Gordon McIntosh, Australia
Jose Ramos-Horta, Fretilin Observer,
The U.N.
and others

The conference is free.

For more information call ETAC at 492-0656.

Sponsored by the East Timor Action Committee and the Third World Coalition, Harvard Law School.

Design: E. Barath